ring the semi-centennial celebration

The 1957 Chieftain

*Published annually by the students of
CAPITOL HILL HIGH SCHOOL
Grand Boulevard at South Walker
Oklahoma City, Oklahoma*

Dedication . . .

Dr. Leonard W. Cox . . .

*It means a lot to have a friend who really understands,
Who works with us and cheers with us, who helps us with our plans,
Who's there to lend a helping hand to guide us on our way,
That takes the time to spare for us; hear our problems every day,
Because he is a patient friend who's kind and thoughtful too,
We proudly dedicate the CHIEFTAIN — DR. COX — to you.*

Foreword . . .

"From Teepees To Towers," from one-room, country school houses to our modern, inspiring structures of today. From reading, writing, and arithmetic to music, art, speech, commercial, and vocational training. What could better represent progress than the advancements made in education during the fifty years of Oklahoma's statehood.

As students of Capitol Hill Highschool, we are proud to be a part of a celebration involving the dreams and plans of so many Oklahomans.

The 1957 Chieftain Yearbook presents life at CHHS; its traditions, ambitions, and hopes for the future; a reflection of the life you helped to make a success.

*Our teachers have trained us for future and success
They've strived to guide and help us they've given us their best*

We cannot express our grat itude enough for their heartfelt care

We can only humbly thank them and extend to them this prayer

If ever we are successful in life beyond this time,

We will proudly say "I owe it all to the teacher whose knowledge built mine"

Our Administration . . .

DR. J. CHESTER SWANSON, Superintendent
Oklahoma City Public Schools

Rounding out his last year as City Superintendent of Schools is Dr. J. Chester Swanson. He has resigned from the educators post which he has held since 1951 to take a position at the University of California at Berkley, California.

Previously, Dr. Swanson was school administrator in Panama Canal Zone and assistant superintendent in Allentown, Pennsylvania and San Diego, California.

His degrees include an AB from Richmond University, an MA and PhD from Duke University and an LLD from Oklahoma City University.

Dr. Swanson has become a familiar and loved figure in Oklahoma education circles and he will be missed by students and teachers alike

Working hand in hand with the citizens of Oklahoma City for better schools and education programs is the Board of Education, headed by Dr. J. Chester Swanson.

This year the board has approved the addition of new classrooms and funds for expansion of some of the already out-dated schools to meet the ever-increasing demands of a growing metropolis.

Approaching the end of his first year at CHHS, Dr. Leonard Cox is proving to be the "Greatest." His immediate popularity is credited to his ability to get along with young people as well as adults.

Before coming to CHHS, Dr. Cox was a classroom teacher and principal at Commerce, Oklahoma for 15 years. More recently he was Director of Pupil Services at Central High School and Consultant for the State Department of Education.

A familiar sight to all CHHS students is Mr. Alonzo Roop, vice-principal and all-out Redskin supporter.

Mr. Roop is in charge of discipline and works with the counselors in helping students adjust themselves to their school program. He is also responsible for attendance problems and statistical reports made to the State Department of Education, the Oklahoma City central office and the North Central Association.

His helpful cooperative nature has made him a friend to students and teachers alike.

Spare moments find

"Come on in, the water's fine!" urge Peggy, Henry and Susan Munde, daughters and husband of Mrs. Jean Munde, CHHS speech instructor.

All ready for the Easter parade are Jan Summers, Susan Summers, Greg Summers, and Chris Summers. They are the grandchildren of Mrs. Hettye Summers.

Preparing for a "big blow" is Mrs. Landerdale during her birth party given by one of her classes.

CHHS faculty relaxing

Playing a fast game of Old Maid are Mr. Melvin Lee and several members of the band. The cards were brought out to relieve the monotony of the long trip home from Denver. In the background are Gerald Orr, Richard McClure and Kenny Null.

A rare, quiet moment finds Mr. and Mrs. Chadwell gathered for a family council meeting with their children, Janell, Twyla, Elzene, Harvey, Cecil, Judy, Mikey.

Leaving for a traditional family holiday are Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Jacobson and their daughters, Janie, Jeanne Anne and another daughter.

Resting after a typical Sunday afternoon are Miss Sara Cohen and her nephew Jeff

Assemblies and plays for

This portrait of Christ was presented to CHHS by the T & I Club. Representing them are Hershal Wise and Clarence Hunter.

"You can't get by," the villain (Billy Whitlow) shouts at Janice during a Knobberette Pep assembly.

Terrified at the mere thought of meeting the "Mighty Redskins" are these Ada Cougars, trying to find a safe place to hide.

busy year for CHHS

"But I must use the telephone," exclaims the "Wayward Saint," Richard McClure, as La Royce Cecil and Charlotte Thompson smile beguilingly at him.

monstrating their driving ability at the wheel of their hotrods are Newell and Charles Dorsey during the safety assembly.

"My, but you sure are getting fancy," Richard McClure seems to be saying to Zetta Moore in the all-school play, "The Wayward Saint."

STUDENT COUNCIL

The governing body of CHS is the Student Council. One representative from each homeroom, all officers, and presidents of clubs compose this organization. "Chin for Polio" and "Clean-up Week" were some of the worthwhile projects the organization sponsored last year. Another successful year was completed under the guidance of sponsor, Miss Sara Cohen, and president, George Routon.

The Executive Board meets with Dr. Cox and Miss Cohen once a week and forms the agenda for the Student Council meetings.

CHOIR

Combining musical education with pleasure is the main goal of the CHHS Choir. In addition to the personal pleasure derived from working together on various programs and special numbers, the choir also provided delightful entertainment for CHHS students and various city organizations.

During the year the choir took time out from other duties and attended clinics and festivals which were popular with the musical Redskins.

Other activities for the year included singing at the Oklahoma premiere of Cinerama, working out the traditional Christmas assembly, and making a trip to Denver, Colorado.

Choir officers for '56-'57 were Richard McClure, President; Myra Jenkins, Vice-President; Barbara Lemmons, Secretary; Norma Hilderbrand, Treasurer; Gerald Orr, King; Nelda Lathrop, Queen, and Mr. A. C. Ossenkop, Director

KNOBBERETTE PEP CLUB

The Knobberette Pep Club introduced many new ideas for creating school spirit this year, one of which was the formation of a group inside their club known as the Pom Pom girls. This dancing drill team soon became familiar sights at pep assemblies and games. Charlotte Thompson, club president, along with Dennis Shaw, Knobberette Buddy, headed the team this year, while Mr. Harold Crosby is the sponsor.

Increased membership was a big boost to the Redskin Pep Club headed this year by Tommy Rodden (first semester) and Bobby Hughes (second semester). Sponsoring hayrack rides, dances, and trips to out of town games contributes much to CHHS school spirit. Kay Lynne Anderson, Redskin Sweetheart, worked closely with the club in their activities, while Science teacher, Mr. Emit Bradford, acted as head sponsor.

Capitol Hill (always having a rugged schedule) started the season with its first two games on foreign soil, playing Amarillo and Pampa on their home fields. Losing both games in Texas, the Redskins came home to taste victory for their first time of the year by beating Northeast. But the following week, The Cougars of Ada who were destined to become Class A champs, rolled over the less-experienced Redskin squad.

Starting the conference tour, the Redskins beat Shawnee and Enid by good margins but squeaked by Northwest Classen (the Knights were the first to score on the Redskins in conference play). Journeying to Poteau, the Hillmen scored three times in their first four plays from scrimmage, with the reserves playing most of the game.

Losing a heartbreaker to the Douglass Trojans, CHHS shared the Mid-State crown with them and lost a possible playoff berth. The following week the Redskins closed the season by walloping Southeast.

Capitol Hill, returning five lettermen to the hardwoods from the state runnerup team of '56, started the season at Borger, Texas in the Borger Invitational Tournament, taking third place. Continuing to win, except two defeats at Amarillo, the Redskins climbed to fifth in the state and were undefeated in state competition until they journeyed to Shawnee.

The Redskins for the second consecutive year led for second in the Mid-State standings with Shawnee once again on top of the map and Northwest Classen at the bottom.

The leading scorer for the Redskin cagers throughout the '56-'57 season was 6'2" James Hobson completing his third season as a regular. Ray Bond, Bill Puckett, George Routon, Ray Curtis, Preslev, and Dennis Shaw often broke to the spotlight with other reserves always backing these boys.

Fielding one of the best teams in the state, the Capitol Hill baseballers immediately set forth to defend their Class A state crown.

Capitol Hill returned four regulars plus another trio of fine pitchers. Receiving several fine sophomores who bolstered their pitching staff plus several fine infielders and outfielders.

Altogether the Redskins returned twelve lettermen but felt the loss of All-Stater Ken Pierce and Ace Pitcher Dick Soergel who had a 13-0 record.

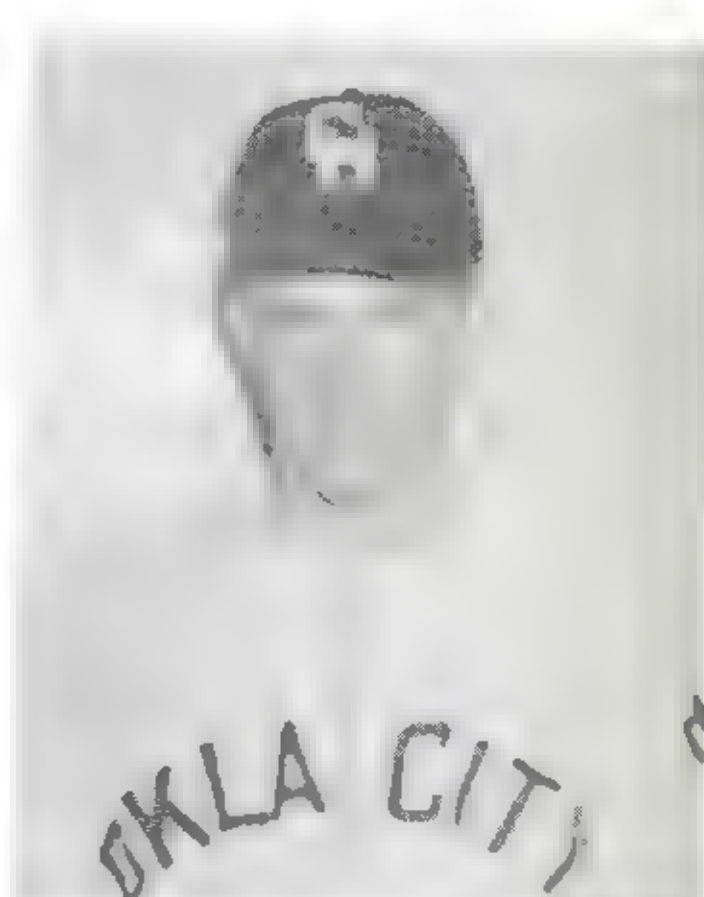

Capitol Hill returned three two-year lettermen: James Dobson, Robert Hembree, and Joel Parkey, and nine one-year men: Ray Bond, Berman Goad, Ronald Nance, Billy Newell, George Routon, Jim Seward, Dennis Shaw, Wesley Stark, and Boyd Stapp.

Capitol Hill, returning two lettermen from the City Championship team of 1956, entered its season fully expecting to keep this crown.

Swinging the rackets this year were: Joe Allen, Sonny Allgood, Mickey Brown, Dale Cox, John Frederick, Charles Hedrick, Larry Hickman, Jack Longnecker, Mike McCarty, Jerry Mabry, Tommy Morgan, Eugene Newcombe, and Don Walker.

Through the instructions of Coach L. H. Bengston most boys progressed rapidly as some had little or no experience except for some who played in summer tournaments. Bolstered by lettermen Tommy Morgan and Don Walker, they won most of their duel meets and always were one of the better teams in any tournament they entered.

Returning for the Redskins were Junior Steve Dodson, Jay Jeffries, and Billy Ray. Using the Hillcrest Country Club course for the second straight year, the Redskins also had Mike Bivens, and Don Fortune swinging the clubs for Capitol Hill.

• • • and won't it be your photograph that you and your grandchildren look for first?

That's a lot of looking ahead, but it illustrates the permanence...
the interest...of a fine photograph. Fine photographs of you are our concern

...a photograph you will proudly give as a personal present...a photograph you will look back on happily years from now.

We hope that when you want a fine photograph taken again, you entrust it to us—your official school photographer.
